

The Beginning of the Purge (By:IG-Lady Kylara, OOG:Jaleh Krasko)

Sir Anslem said, "Let's go clear out
Those undead from this town."
And he gathered those to aid in this
All eager, no trace of frown.

They banded together swords and men
Companioned by a female bard
They set out one night to clear the land
Well prepared and set on guard.

They met the first undead kin
And changed, I tell no lies.
Where once had stood this band of men
Were beings with glowing eyes.

Sir Anselm said, "Fear us not.
We only harm undead.
Let's kill the evil spectors.
Destroy them, remove the head."

"The Purge has begun!" he cried.
With that he led the charge,
Into a long and twisty cave
That was not so very large.

They found a crystal golem
And fought it bravely.
It was a nasty creature
But was destroyed eventually.

The last they fought was acid beast
From a pool of its name.
It tried to hurt us all but failed
And left none even lame.

Six spectors, golem and acid beast
Faced this band to die
She saw it all and sang to them
I am she and that's no lie.
